Smallpox in Pensacola, Fla.

PENSACOLA, FLA., April 12, 1896.

SIR: I have the honor to report another case of smallpox that has come under the observation of the county physician, Dr. R. W. Hargis, in a white man by the name of F. M. Reynolds, a brother of the keeper of the poorhouse. The board of health has instituted a house-to-house inspection, and also a system of free vaccination, and are doing everything in their power to prevent the spread of the disease. The case reported in my letter of the 7th died.

Respectfully yours,

J. WHITING HARGIS,
Acting Assistant Surgeon, U. S. M. H. S.Vessels arriving at, departing from, and remaining at United States quarantine stations.
